

The Sand Bag

I cannot lift this big bag of sand. I can't lift it off the bed of the truck. I wish I had some big, strong men to help with this job. Then it will be no problem. The sand is in such a big bag that I just cannot get it from the truck bed and on the grass. I must get help.

Draw a picture of the bag of sand, below.

The Sled

This is a sled. It is big and red, but it is not fast. It will not win a contest. In the past, it has come in last. This sled did not get us to the bottom of the hill. It got stuck, and I had to lug it back to the top. It was not fun. It was a drag.

Draw a picture of you and the sled, below.

I Want a Snack

I will get a snack. It will not be a hot dog on a bun. It will not be chips and dip. I will not get a glass of milk with chocolate in it. I will not have an apple. I can't get a banana. The snack will not be a sandwich. I will have . . .

Draw a picture of the snack you'll eat, below.
