

The word said
is an irregular word.

Does it say said?

I see two vowels together,
but the word doesn't say

/s/ /ā/ /d/.

It sounds like this:

/s/ /ě/ /d/.

Write said three times.

Put a comma between them, because this is a list.

Mom _____ I was acting silly.

The doctor _____ I had a fever.

The clock _____ it was twelve o'clock.

"I love you, too," _____ my grandma.

The teacher _____ that we should know how to spell _____ after this lesson. 😊
