

Aw.

paw

saw

claws

fawn

awful

laws

crawls

yawn

lawn

draw

shawl

straw

flawless

dawdle

sawdust

hawks

crawdad

drawer

guffaw

Remember that a-u
and a-w can both say /Aw!/.

haul

fault

gauze

August

launch

aunt*

haunted

With a-u, the g-h says . . .
absolutely nothing.

taught

caught

daughter

A y at the end of a long word usually says /ē/.

/ē/
laundry

autumn

naughty

exhausted

because

withdraw

jawbone

astronaut

Foundations
for Literacy

awesome

applause

flawless

lawmaker

automatic

laugh

😊 Ha! Ha! 😊 Hee! Hee! 😊 Ha! Ha! 😊

: